Lesson 1 - Missional Director's Meeting

ELT Relationship Covenant

The purpose of this Emerging Leader Training is to encourage and train men and women who are emerging as leaders towards godly leadership. To accomplish this we agree to the following:

Meetings:

We agree to schedule and keep our meetings together. If an unavoidable reason occurs to miss a meeting, I will inform the other as soon as possible.

Confidentiality:

We agree to hold our conversations with one another sensitively and with integrity. We will respect one another by keeping our mentoring conversations confidential. We recognize that state law requires that suspected sexual abuse, physical abuse, neglect, or serious threat of physical harm to self or others be reported to the appropriate authorities. If issues of physical, emotional or spiritual health arise it is expected that these issues will be dealt with sensitively and that others may be called in for counsel and resources.

Emerging Leader:

- I agree to be responsible and accountable to my missional director to complete these activities in a timely manner for God's glory.
- I agree to pursue a healthy attitude in this process, knowing that by my attitude I am an example to others as I lead them.
- I agree to live up to the expectations of the leaders of this church as an emerging leader in their midst.

Missional Director:

- I agree to expend the time and energy to mentor this emerging leader in the kingdom of God for God's glory.
- I agree to be a resource, to open opportunities and to promote the growth of this emerging leader within our church.
- I agree to provide helpful evaluation and progress reports as requested as part of the Emerging Leader Training series.

Lesson 13 - Practicing Spiritual Disciplines

Check only those disciplines for which you have a thoughtful plan and practice.

Disciplines of Engagement/Activity:

- Scripture Study/Meditation: Spending time reading the Scriptures and meditating on its meaning and importance in my life in order to cleanse my body and mind.
- Scripture Memorization: Memorizing the Bible in order to conform my heart and transform my thoughts.
- Worship: Offering praise and adoration to God in order to give my life perspective.
- Prayer: Talking and listening to God about my relationship with Him and my needs in order to learn how to trust Him as source and provider.
- Thankfulness: Spending time focusing on what God has done for me and thanking Him so that I become a person of thankful response.
- Fellowship: Mutual caring and ministry in the body of Christ through committed, accountable relationships so that I live responsibly towards myself, my family and my Christian brothers and sisters.
- Confession: Regularly confess my sins to the Lord and other trusted individuals in order to experience God's forgiveness and cleansing.
- Discernment: Giving attention to what God is doing or wanting in the person who is before me at any given moment.

Disciplines of Letting Go/Abstinence:

- Submission: Humbling myself before God and others while seeking accountability in relationships.
- Solitude: Spending time alone with God as my focus.
- Silence: Removing noisy distractions so I become better able to hear God.
- Slowing Down: Putting myself in situations where I have to move at a slower pace to break the hurriedness in my life.
- Fasting: Skipping a meal(s) (or abstaining from an activity) so I learn to find greater nourishment from God.
- Secrecy: Avoiding self-promotion, practicing serving God without others knowing so that service flows out of who I am as God's son or daughter.
- Frugality/Sacrifice: Choosing to live with less money and still meet my basic needs as a practice of my freedom to depend on God.
